“Gathering Hum”

Presider: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Let us pray.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider: O God our defender, storms rage about us and cause us to be afraid. Rescue your people from despair, deliver your sons and daughters from fear, and preserve us all from unbelief; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and ever.

All: Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel

On David’s return from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand. Saul said to him, “Whose son are you, young man?” And David answered, “I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.” When David had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father’s house. Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul. Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that he was wearing, and gave it to David, and his armour, and even his sword and his bow and his belt. David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; as a result, Saul set him over the army. And all the people, even the servants of Saul, approved. The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; and Saul threw the spear, for he thought, “I will pin David to the wall.” But David eluded him twice. Saul was afraid of David, because the Lord was with him but had departed from Saul. So Saul removed him from his presence, and made him a commander of a thousand; and David marched out and came in, leading the army. David had success in all his undertakings; for the Lord was with him. When Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him. But all Israel and Judah loved David; for it was he who marched out and came in leading them.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 133

Oh, how good and pleasant it is, *
when brethren live together in unity!

It is like fine oil upon the head *
that runs down upon the beard,

Upon the beard of Aaron, *
and runs down upon the collar of his robe.

It is like the dew of Hermon *
that falls upon the hills of Zion.

For there the Lord has ordained the blessing: *
life for evermore.

A Reading from The Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

As we work together with Christ, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.” See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labours, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honour and dishonour, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see – we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything. We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return – I speak as to children – open wide your hearts also.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

All: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

On that day, when evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON: The Reverend Canon Ian Powell

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Presider: Let us confess the faith of our baptism:

All: I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day, he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated on the right hand of the Father.
He will come again
to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Presider: Dear friends in Christ, O God our defender, storms rage about us and cause us to be afraid. Rescue your people from despair, deliver your sons and daughters from fear, and preserve us all from unbelief; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and ever.

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; welcoming of sinners and inviting us to table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

All: Holy and gracious One: forgive our sins.
The ones we can remember, and those we have forgotten.
Forgive the wrong actions we have committed,
the right actions we have avoided and the times when we have failed to live out your kingdom call to justice and love. Creator of all, have mercy on us, and make us whole. Amen.

Presider: May Almighty God, who in Jesus Christ has given us a kingdom that cannot be destroyed, forgive you your sins, open your eyes to God's truth, strengthen you to do God's will and give you the joy of his kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider: The peace of our Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

THE PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

[10:30 a.m. only]

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And with thy Spirit.

All: We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, Trusting in our own righteousness, But in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, So to Eat the Flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his Body, And our souls washed through his most precious Blood, And that we may evermore dwell in him, and He in us. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All: Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Let us pray:

All: Loving God, through your goodness we have this bread and wine to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. May we know your touch in all bread, all matter. We celebrate the life that Jesus has shared among his community through the centuries and shares with us now. Made one in Christ and one with each other, we offer you these gifts, and with them ourselves and this time together, in Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

[9:15 a.m. with reserved sacrament from the 8:00 a.m. service]

Presider: The table of Our Lord is now ready. It is the table of company with Jesus, and all who love him. It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world, with whom Jesus identified himself. It is the table of communion with the earth, in which Christ became incarnate. So come to this table, knowing that you are always welcome for it is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

THE COMMUNION

[9:15 a.m. with reserved Sacrament from the 8:00 a.m. service]

For as many as would like so to do.

Presider: The Gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Presider: Almighty God, guide and protect your people who share in this sacred mystery, and keep us always in your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Presider: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus
for ever and ever. Amen.

Tsawout Assembly of Praise Church

Don 't forget to call the office on Monday/Wednesday/Friday to pre-register for Church. The office number is 250-656-3223.

This is a Provincial Health Order requirement.

There are six ways to give regular offerings

1. Drop your envelope at the back of the church during an-person service.
2. Slip your envelope through the church office door.
3. Mail your envelope to Holy Trinity Church, 1319 Mills Road, North Saanich, BC V8L 5T2.
4. If you wish to make a one-time donation, please ensure the address on your cheque is correct so we can issue a Contribution Statement for tax purposes.
5. Get set up on the Electronic Collection Plate.*
6. You can also send an e-transfer (Interac[®]) to the address – givings@holytrinityns.org. Please include your envelope number in the memo section, so we can issue a Contribution Statement. It is a good idea to contact the Envelope Administrator Secretary, Jan Horner, if you are using this method for the first time.

* See our website or contact the office to have the form sent to you by email.

Thank you for being generous.

Outreach offerings

Each year the Parish Council chooses monthly outreach ministries that we want to support as a community.

The money collected and distributed is not part of our annual budget. Each month, we have the opportunity to make a personal offering back to God and direct our gifts to specific ministries.

These offerings are indicated on the Outreach offering line on the regular weekly envelopes. Similarly, the Primate's World Relief & Development Fund uses a blue envelope that you can use to contribute to it.

Please note that in all cases, checks should be made payable to Holy Trinity Anglican Church. We'll make sure your Outreach gets directed to the Outreach which you have carefully and prayerfully chosen to support.

Collect of the Day for Monday, June 21

Creator God, from you every family in heaven and earth takes its name. You have rooted and grounded us in your covenant love, and empowered us by your Spirit to speak the truth in love, and to walk in your way towards justice and wholeness. Mercifully grant that your people, journeying together in partnership, may be strengthened and guided to help one another to grow into the full stature of Christ, who is our light and our life. Amen

Welcome back!

Happy Father's Day!
